TIME CONTROL

“It’s amazing how you can control the time”

Standing by you
I don’t feel the passing of the time
I don’t even know if it exist
It passes so quickly!

When I’m far away from you
I don’t understand how time passes so slow
I keep waiting for time to pass
But it always takes so long!

Oh! When I kiss you
Time freezes
Everything freezes

Oh! When I want you
I feel the heat
All of the sun heat

LOVE

If love and suffering walk along together
It’s because we are not corresponded
Or because we don’t really love each other

But if we are not corresponded, we don’t love each other
It’s just passion,

For only we really love someone
When we also loved...

If to love were complicated
It wouldn't be love
For who loves does not complicates
Simply loves

If you try to understand
It's because you don't love
For who loves does not want understand
Wants just to love

If we discussed, we don't love
We waste love time
If we controlled each other, we don't love
For it has no control

If we try to forget
It's because we don't love
For who loves, doesn't want to forget
And if we insist, we suffering

TO BE ABLE TO WAKE UP

I want to wake up
And before thinking
Simply to love

I want to wake up
And before speaking
To feel your look

I want to live
And without any pain
And without any modesty
To have you

I want to dream
With your flower
With your taste
And touch you

I want to wake up
I want to live
I want to dream
I want to love without thinking

I wake up
I live
I dream
I love you everyday

HOPE

Wherever you go
Take some time for the dreams
Take some time to live

Wherever you look at
Time splits
Time unites

Wherever you go
You will miss someone
You will feel the love

Where the sun sets
Close your eyes and listen
Open your eyes and see

Wherever you go
So we will
Where the sun sets
There, we will be

On the top of a mountain
Or behind a door
In the middle of a road
Or under a garden, there, we will go

On your way home
Or waiting for a ride
On your way to work
Or under a canvas, there, we will go

GAZING AT THE SEA

Gazing at the sea, I feel strength
It's just like touching the fire
And feeling, your skin, burning

Gazing at the sea, I can hear the wind
It's just like playing a note
And knowing what music to play

Gazing at the sea it's like gazing at you
To feel yours strength
To feel life pulsing like music

To be able to feel your kiss
Even without kissing you
But nothing make sense
But nothing make sense

If I couldn't share
It all with someone
If I couldn't share
It all with you...

SOMEONE

You know when, even without understanding
Someone runs into your life...
That's when, even without knowing,
Something changes our lives

You know when someone just shows up
And comfort you, and make you live
It's like someone who seems to hear your prayer
And take care of you, and stops your suffering

You know when someone breaks in
And softly, in your bosom, appears
As someone who steal a heart without hurting
And never more disappears

But life just show us the other way around
It depends on us, to understand
It's like living in verses
Without learning to see

And destiny just takes us to a door
It depends on us, to open it
It's like sowing a vegetable garden
And before harvesting, simply, go...

SPECIAL MOMENTS

I learn something every day
I learn with the surprises of life
I get impressed every day
I get impressed with the surprises of life

At unexpected moments
Good things happen
And for those things
It happens anytime

It's better to have always
Then to have no time
And better then have it always
It's to have it when you don't expect

At those moments of life
We get some surprises

Learning to love
We know people
We strike up a friendship
We experience happiness

And because of them
We feel hope
We trust in destiny
We make things come true
We live life...

TIME AND THE WIND

Breath in the sea
Just like you breath in the air
Feel that time
Just like you feel the wind

If you breath in the sea
It's because you are alive
If you breath in the air
It's because you live aimlessly

Feel that time
To feel life going by
So feel the wind
To feel the strength of the air

See what you want to see
And don't waste any time
Don't let the time pass by
And don't say: "But I try..."

Look around and see
What time can do
Look around
Nothing can be lost

From life nothing is lost
And not just everything is lost
But you always get something
For what was got, you can give it away someday

Either hate, or love, either happiness or sadness
That one day you suffered or enjoyed
So you will give back to someone everything you fought for You'll give back the certainty, that one day,
Was your worst weakness...

SEE WHAT YOU HAVE NEVER SEEN

The beauty to see
That something you have never seen
It's unique
For you have seen it, at least, once

If everybody could see
That something we have never seen
Life would hold secrets no more
It wouldn't make any sense...

There are many things we don't see
And even so close, we don't see them
There are so many things we see
And even so far, we see them

Everybody can see
Even who can't see
We need no eyes
Just heart

Then see
Then live
Live to see the beauty of living
See to live the beauty of seeing

GAZE

Look around
See what you want to see
See ider what frightens you
Or purest being

Just look
But look without any fear of looking
Just feel
Without any fear of feeling

Now close your eyes
And see the mountain in the horizon
Don't stop now
And see the sea of flowers

Let the perfume envelop you
Let the wind touch your body
Listen to the birds singing
And cast your anchor at this port

Stay there
As long as you can
And stop fighting
As long as you want

But look without any fear of looking
Just feel
Without any fear of feeling

The world you can see
That's what we do
That's what we are
That's what we have...
